65th Narzissenfest

in the Ausseerland Salzkammergut from May 29 to June 1, 2025

The wild-growing star narcissus decorate the flower meadows of the region in spring, transforming the idyllic mountain and lake landscape into a sea of blossoms.

At the Narzissenfest, the largest spring and flower festival in Austria, splendidly designed narcissus figures will be presented during the Parade on June 1.

Narcissus Parade in Altaussee

The artistic narcissus figures will be presented throughout the day in Altaussee – in the morning, they can be admired at the lakeshore. The festival program with music and culinary delights ensures great variety for the guests. From 2 pm on, the narcissus figures float on the lake Altaussee See, passing by Jausenstation Kahlseneck, the Seepark, and the Restaurant Strandcafé.

The announcement of the award-winning figures at 3 pm marks the crowning conclusion of the Narzissenfest!

Afterwards, your group will be transported by a shuttle bus back to the tour bus parking lot.

Attention: Travel groups that have reserved for lunch at a restaurant have to register in advance with the Narzissenfestverein.

We are happy to assist in finding a suitable restaurant.
